Continuing Cat Care Waiver Form

The Hermitage No-Kill Cat Shelter acknowledges receipt of your bequest dated, _____, which stipulates/requests lifetime shelter and care of your cat(s), _____ at our facility. It is the policy of The Hermitage No-Kill Cat Shelter not to promise permanent shelter but rather to adopt your cat(s) out to a loving home for the following reasons:

- While the shelter is dedicated to the preservation of quality of life for our felines, it is a shelter and not intended as a permanent home. Although we promise to provide shelter for those we have accepted into our care, we are dedicated to finding homes for them that will afford the care and love typical of that for a household pet. We carefully screen potential adopting households to assure a happy, safe, healthy, and loving environment.
- Your cat did not live in an environment as one among hundreds, and will probably be happier and healthier in a home with fewer animals. It is likely that we will be able to find such a home for him/her.

I understand and agree that, when possible, it will be in the best interest of _____ to be placed in an adoptive home.
